

Director, Public Affairs & Political Action

Alex R. Mullineaux

Mr. Mullineaux staffs the FAH's Public Relations Committee and directs the day-to-day operations of the FAH's political action committee, for which he provides strategic input about future PAC activities and is responsible for all PAC compliance efforts. He also researches and monitors public policy initiatives, meets with Congressional staff members, and attends relevant hearings on Capitol Hill. Prior to joining the FAH, Mr. Mullineaux served as Project Director for Inspiring America, a non-profit organization which advances progressive ideas about America's future; and as an Online Associate with 21st Century Democrats, a political action committee and "527" political organization.

Mr. Mullineaux also served as Public Director for John Marks, the mayor of Tallahassee, FL; and as Assistant Finance Director for the 2004 re-election campaign of Rep. Stephanie Herseth (D-SD). He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and Communications from Florida State University and is pursuing a Master of Business Administration degree from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland.
